Commemorative Roses for the Garden of Remembrance for Covid victims

Several, appropriately names roses, for consideration with regard to remembering those who have died in Stratford-upon-Avon due to Covid 19

Never Forgotten – an enduringly popular fragrant remembrance rose (Colin Gregory Roses)

This very popular memorial rose has deep red petals, which are cream-coloured on the other side. A floribunda rose with a heavenly scent which flowers from late spring

Absent Friends – a lovely floral tribute to mark a significant date (Fragrant Rose Company)

This peach coloured floribunda will grow vigorously in a sunny spot and is sweetly fragrant. A compact rose to remember someone by, or mark a significant date or anniversary.

Loving Memory – a classic memorial rose (Peter Beales Roses)

This classically-shaped red hybrid tea remembrance rose. It comes into flower from June, with beautiful, very lightly-fragranced blooms and can last until November.

Remembrance - Floribunda Rose

Vivid scarlet blooms in large clusters, borne over a long flowering period. Strong, compact and bushy with dark glossy leaves

Rose – Captain Sir Tom Moore (Harkness Roses)

'Hybrid Tea' variety
Producing masses of perfectly formed, gorgeously scented, double flowered red roses between May to October each year
